THE POLITICAL FIELD.

Anti-Saloon Republicans Preparing for the Coming Campaign.

Illinois Republicans Nominate Governor and State Officers.

Judge Gresham's Candidacy Enthusiastically Endorsed.

Democratic Conventions Held in Iowa and Connecticut.

Anti-Saloon Conference.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The national republican anti-saloon conference began this morning in Cooper institute. Delegates from all states were in attendance. Chairman Grillin in his opening address said that the only way in which the movement can be successful is to have the help of others that are not now in the movement. Seventy-five per cent of the republicans, he continued, are opposed to saloons and consider it a great amount question. [illegible] more for political movements than the saloon question and only ten per cent favor saloons. Only half of one per cent of the republican party are in the liquor business, and we hope that by the action of the next national convention this element will be eliminated from that business. Letters of regret were read from Jos. R. Hawley, Wm. M. Evarts, John Sherman and William Wirt.

Gilbert Moulden general Thomas J. Morgan of Rhode Island as temporary chairman. Morgan made an eloquent appeal to the young men of the country to join in the work of driving the influence of saloons from politics.

General Stewart L. Woodford then welcomed the conference in a brief speech. He said if he had the power he would stop the sale of liquor altogether. "I know that over three-fourths of the people of New York city drink liquor. There are not federal laws enough in this country to enforce the prohibition of liquor. Let us then go to Chicago, [illegible] and work for our candidates."

Senator John Sherman in his letter of regret says: "I certainly would support all reasonable measures tending to restrain the evils that now flow from the sale of liquor in saloons. The remedy depends so much upon the state of public opinion in which the law is to operate that no rule of prohibition or even regulation can be successfully enforced in all places alike.

Members of the national committee so far named are Hon. J. E. Page of Vermont and General A. B. Nettleton of Minnesota.

At the opening of the afternoon session the following telegrams were sent: the republican state convention at Springfield, Illinois, and conventions of republican clubs at Des Moines and Indianapolis: "National anti-saloon republicans in convention assembled in New York city telegraph you cordial greetings, with a key note. The saloon must be destroyed."

Elijah A. Morse, of Massachusetts, was then introduced. He said among other things that in 1881 a crime was committed by the prohibition party, not knowingly, however. In defeating James G. Blaine.

Ex-Governor Sydney Perham, of Maine, was made permanent chairman. The remainder of the afternoon session was spent in listening to reports of the progress of work in various states all of which were favorable.

State Conventions.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 2.—The republican state convention assembled at noon and a temporary organization was effected with Congressman Payson as chairman. At the conclusion of Payson's opening speech and after the appointment of the different committees recess was taken until 3 o'clock.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 2.—Joseph Fifer was nominated for governor, L. B. Ray for lieutenant-governor. The following were chosen for delegates at large: Col. George S. Davis, Hon. C. B. Farwell, Chicago, Horace S. Clark, Mattoon; W. T. Hadley, Edwardsville. State Senator I. N. Pearson was nominated for secretary of state.

A resolution endorsing Gresham for the presidency was enthusiastically passed.

Resolutions were adopted expressing just and honorable pride in the public services of Senator Cullom, and approving his course in the senate. Also a lengthy resolution that republicans of Illinois regard the record of Walter Q. Gresham as a soldier, statesman and jurist with satisfaction, knowing him to be an honest and faithful servant, believing that in event of his nomination for president by the republican party the campaign must be contested solely on the principles of the great party of which Judge Gresham is a true representative, and that he is the only man who can lead to victory that party. Therefore

Resolved, That we declare our preference for Judge Gresham as a candidate for the presidential nomination and recommend delegates to the national convention to give him hearty and faithful support.

The platform opens with the declaration that the party deems it unnecessary on the eve of the national convention to make an extended declaration of principles more than to reaffirm those laid down in the national platform of 1884, and to express the conviction that public interests would be greatly promoted by a change of administration. It then arraigns the democratic party and administration for failure to carry out the pledges made in the platform of '84, denounces the civil acts of the president, and denounces the democratic party, which while professing attachment to state sovereignty and home rule, denies both to American citizens of Dakota for fear the votes of that body [illegible]

IOWA.

DUBUQUE, May 2.—The democratic state convention assembled at 11 o'clock. It was largely attended. After temporary organization had been effected and the customary opening address by the chairman, delegates to the national convention were announced as follows: First district, W. W. Baldwin, J. D. M. Hamilton; Second, Moses Bloomer, Thomas Lambert; Third, J. H. Sales, Otto Sells; Fourth, L. S. Ainsworth, G. T. Billings; Fifth, Charles A. Clark, J. E. Henrigues; Sixth, S. S. Carothers, L. G. Anderson; Seventh, W. H. McHenry, A. E. Morrison; Eighth, W. W. Shrom, E. S. Whitemore; Ninth, J. S. Tam, E. M. Wyland; Tenth, A. B. Keith, J. J. Wilson; Eleventh, Will A. Wells, T. D. Higgs. A recess was taken until 3 o'clock.

After permanent organization had been effected resolutions were adopted heartily endorsing President Cleveland's administration of public affairs, and the liberal, prompt and generous payment of all pensions in meritorious claims; emphatically endorses the tariff revision views expressed in the message of President Cleveland. The third plank says that in appointment to all offices which may reflect the policies of the administration persons should be selected whose principles harmonize with the party's, but subordinates should be selected and retained for their efficiency. Leveling of assessments on office holders for political purposes is strongly condemned and President Cleveland's efforts toward reform and elevation of the civil service is commended. Opposition is declared to prohibitory liquor laws in the state.

National delegates at large were elected as follows: F. W. Lehman, Des Moines, J. C. Kelly, Sioux City; W. H. M. Pusey, Council Bluffs, and P. G. Bollingall, Ottumwa. Alternates: W. W. Dodge, Burlington; W. C. Earl, Waukon; J. W. Crockett, Adair, and J. M. Sweeney, Dubuque. The delegation is solid for Cleveland, but is divided on vice presidential choice between Gray, Black and Stevenson.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, May 2.—The democratic state convention met to-day. Delegates at large: James E. Boyd, J. Sterling Morton, James E. North and Tobias Castor. District delegates were also elected, and all instructed to vote as a unit for Cleveland's renomination. The platform urges legislation against trusts, forfeiture of unearned land grants, recommends liberal pensions for union veterans and reprehends keeping alive the hatred of the civil war.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE, May 2.—At the republican territorial convention held at Ogden today C. S. Varian of Salt Lake and John J. Daly of Park City were elected delegates to the national convention at Chicago, no instructions.

PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISBURG, May 2.—The state prohibition convention opened here this morning. Permanent organization was effected and a permanent [illegible] noon.

Local Renominations.

PORTLAND, Maine, May 2.—The First district republican convention renominated Thos. B. Reed for congress. Four delegates to the national convention were chosen. A Brown and Wm. Tolee were chosen. Resolutions strongly endorsing Blaine for first and last choice were passed.

A District Convention.

[illegible], May 2.—The twelfth congressional district convention elected R. W. [illegible] delegates to the national convention uninstructed.

Meeting of Allison Clubs.

DES MOINES, May 2.—A state convention of republican clubs was held here to-day. All allusions to Allison by the speakers were greeted with tremendous cheering. Secretary of State Jackson, Hon. J. P. D. Oliver, H. R. Wolcott of Denver, Colorado, and Congressman Hepburn made speeches. A platform was adopted expressing the general principles of republicanism, and the de [illegible]

Adjourned.

The house went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill.

Wilson of Minnesota denounced the protective system. He was [illegible] it had enriched a few it prevented the expansion of our industries and because it was especially unjust to agricultural interests. The important question presented now was whether the wealthy classes be allowed to rob the poor classes.

McComas of Maryland said Cleveland's message and the foundling now called the Mills bill had a common purpose, both used the surplus. The bill called upon him to apply the free trade lever to dislodge the protective system. Every free trade speech [illegible]

Lanham of Texas said in view of the [illegible] congress and in view of the intrepid stand taken by the president he could not see how any democrat could afford to antagonize the general proposition for reducing taxation.

Allen of Massachusetts spoke at length in favor of the protective policy.

Caruth of Kentucky characterized the protective tariff as under cover, and while it pretended to be giving the country protection it was in reality stealing its substance and destroying its life. In conclusion he replied to Keifer's criticism upon Kentucky, and paid an eloquent tribute to that state.

The committee rose. The senate bill was passed to establish an additional land district in Oregon. The house then took recess until 8 o'clock.

There were but half a dozen members present at the house evening session. Stewart of Georgia spoke against protection and Davis of Massachusetts in its favor.

The Strike Still On.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Alexander Sullivan, counsel for the strikers, denies that the Burlington strike has been declared off, and claims that no action will be taken until after conclusion of the investigation by the inter-state commerce commission.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Chief Hogg of the general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who has had practical charge of affairs since the beginning of the strike, said today that the strike had not been formally declared off. However the men had been allowed to resume their old places the best they could, or go somewhere else. A meeting of the grievance committee takes place soon to decide the question.

The Chinese Treaty.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—In secret session to-day Senator Sherman reported back the Chinese treaty from the senate committee on foreign relations, with the recommendation of the committee that it be ratified. The committee has made two minor amendments, one providing that the prohibition features of the treaty shall apply to those who are now absent from the country regardless of any certificates they may hold, and the other requires that classes privileged to return shall only be permitted to land upon presenting certificates issued previous to the present time. Sherman asked that the treaty be taken up to-day but objection was made and it went over.

The Vatican on Irish Affairs.

LONDON, May 2.—It is stated the papal decree and Cardinal Manning's circular to the bishop are considered preliminary steps to further action in Irish affairs. A special congregation of the propaganda, composed exclusively of cardinals, is now examining some questions relative to the Irish agitation, upon which it will formally vote. Cardinal Simeoni has submitted at least ten points to the congregation. The Vatican appears resolved that those opposing its decisions will place themselves outside the pale of moral and Christian law. The Vatican does not doubt that Irish bishops will feel the necessity of adopting the line of conduct the Vatican prescribes.

The Farmer's Trust.

TOPEKA, Kas., May 2.—The conventions called for the organization of a farmers' trust met here yesterday with considerable [illegible] Governor Booth of New York was elected for president [illegible] Moulton, of Missouri, for vice president, and J. B. Ferguson of Kansas, secretary. The establishment of [illegible] association was proposed, but no definite plan determined upon.

Heavy Mail Robbery.

HAMILTON, Ont., May 2.—It is pretty well settled that the robbery of [illegible] on the Northern Central railway near Hill more this morning, but the authorities have refused to furnish [illegible] facts. It is said registered letters containing about $20,000 were taken. A punch with a long shaft came to the Harrisburg postoffice to-day. Detectives are at work.

Canada's Debt.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 2.—Sir Charles Tupper to-day will ask parliament for authority to borrow $3,000,000 for the purpose of paying the floating debt of the Dominion and for carrying on public works authorized by parliament.

EDGERTON MURDER.

The Scene of the Mysterious Crime Visited Yesterday.

A Thorough Search Made of the House and Barn.

Additional Light Thrown on the Horrible Deed.

No Indictment for Committing it Yet Returned.

[illegible] morgue, the sixth [illegible] which occurred the Hand [illegible] Edgerton yesterday afternoon [illegible] surroundings of the place [illegible] deserted [illegible] were the mystery which [illegible] the murderer perpetrated the deed on the 26th of March. The [illegible] a peculiar fascination [illegible] mystery.

Yesterday afternoon was the first time the scene of the crime has been visited since the horrible discovery of last Sunday morning. The ranch is located [illegible] two miles northwest of Edgerton postoffice, and [illegible] the Colorado Fuel company's reservoir and [illegible]. The house cannot be seen until one is almost upon it. From the road which follows the course of the West Monument the [illegible] probable distance of half a mile. The house is [illegible] road, which leaves the main road about a quarter of a mile from the house. On both sides of this road there is a dense growth of pines and cottonwoods. The ground is covered with [illegible] of scrub oak. About a quarter of a mile from the house, the shanties which were occupied by some wood choppers about two months ago were passed. These are now entirely deserted and present a somewhat tumbled down appearance.

Mrs. Kearney arrived at the ranch last July. It had not been occupied since April, and therefore the grounds, fences and outbuildings were in a rather dilapidated state. She expressed some regret that the garden had not been planted, and lamented the fact that things were apparently going to rack and ruin. But Mrs. Kearney made no effort to improve the external appearance of the premises. The barn was unused, for she had no horses, only an infrequent interloper. She had no cows nor chickens, but supplied herself with milk, butter and eggs from the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Estes, which is about a half a mile northwest of the Hand property. The lowering and sighing wind and the absence of every sign of life only gave the place a more desolate appearance, and the impression was instantly formed that no better locality could have been selected for the perpetration of a foul deed.

The house has been left in exactly the same condition that Mr. Harris and Miss Ellwerthy found it last Saturday afternoon. Great pains have been taken to keep its contents undisturbed. Yesterday afternoon Coroner Davis and Sheriff Jackson made a thorough search of the premises. While the search resulted in the finding of no definite clues, it established beyond dispute that the murderer left no traces of his presence behind him which could in any wise establish his identity.

The interior of the building presented a very forlorn and untidy appearance. The rooms on the first and second floors were only partially carpeted, and the three beds which were found in the house were all unmade and the blankets and pillows indiscriminately mixed. A singular fact in connection with the beds was that not a single sheet could be found in the house.

The chief interest in the house centered in the kitchen. Here it was that Mrs. Kearney was evidently engaged before the fatal deed was perpetrated. The kitchen is a small room about 10x12 on the west side of the house. The door and the one window in the room faces south, so that any unusual occurrences in or about the room would be entirely unobserved by any persons traveling the road or by any people on the Estes ranch from which the Hand house is in plain sight. In the room are two common tables, a cupboard and a kitchen stove. These tables are now laden with pans, kettles and dishes. On the table nearest the cupboard was a dish pan with three sets of dirty dishes in it, and on the other table was another set also dirty and which apparently had been used at the last meal eaten in the house. On the same table was the bread board with eight biscuit ready to put in the pan for baking, together with two pies. On the table on which the dish pan had been placed was a light shawl, where Mrs. Kearney had [illegible] on the fatal morning, [illegible] was the little basket containing the half dozen eggs purchased of Mrs. Estes. The apron which Mrs. Kearney wore when engaged in work in the kitchen was found on her body, stained with blood. This fact proves that she was at work in the kitchen about the time she was murdered. The most important fact brought to light by the sheriff in his examination of the building yesterday was in the second story of the building. He found that the window on the east side had been forced in by a blunt instrument. This window opens out on to the roof of the porch, which is easily accessible from the ground. The marks on the window have evidently been made lately and are considerably fresher than those on the east window on the first floor.

This discovery gives a new theory to [illegible]

[illegible]

Sheriff Jackson after an extended interview with Mr. and Mrs. Estes returned to the city. Neither Mr. Estes nor his wife could furnish anything of additional bearing on the case to that already stated by them to Coroner Davis. Mrs. Estes said that when Mrs. Kearney visited the ranch on March 30th she said that she wanted some eggs for Easter. Mrs. Estes was unable to give her as many eggs as she wished, and Mrs. Kearney stated that she would return the next day for more. Mrs. Kearney told her that she had no money to pay her for the eggs, but would do so in a day or two. This is the last time that Mrs. Estes saw her alive, and she started for her home shortly before noon.

The more that is learned about the murder the deeper [illegible] developing it become. As Sheriff Jackson stated last evening, "The more I know about the case, the less I know."

The remains of Mrs. Kearney and the little boy are still in the vault in the Manitou cemetery. No final disposition will be made of them until Mrs. Hand is heard from.

A Monopoly for Pullman.

CHICAGO, May 2.—The case between the Pullman and Wagner car companies in regard to vestibule trains was decided this morning by Judges Blodgett and Gresham, in favor of the Pullman company and enjoining the Wagner company from the further use of these trains. The decision is based on the validity of Pullman patents, completely refuting the claim of the Wagners that vestibule cars had been in use in other countries before Pullman obtained the patent. The decision gives the Pullman company a monopoly in the manufacture of vestibule cars in this country.

No reward has yet been offered for the detection of the Edgerton murderers. This county ought to take some action.

The Providence Journal says the democratic majority in Louisiana was a large one, but that it has not been definitely settled whether it was alive or stuffed.

The council would like suggestions as to hours of using the hydrants for sprinkling. The plan of sprinkling after sundown will provide for the most economical use of the water, but there may be good objections to this plan. The council wishes to adopt the system that will economize the water and give the greatest convenience.

Elsewhere will be found a letter from Mr. Ehrich, regarding the recent performance given by the pupils of the Deaf Mute institute. The endorsement is a very strong one and should enlist the sympathy of a good many of our readers. It is not often that so good an object can be helped and at the same time a performance of more than average interest and amusement be enjoyed.

Mr. William Stapleton, for several years managing editor of the Rocky Mountain News and more recently melter of the mint in Denver, has become managing editor of the Denver Republican. Newspaper men throughout the state will hail with pleasure his return to journalism. When in newspaper work, he was considered the best informed political writer in the state. Besides, he is a writer of great force and ability. We are glad that the successor to Mr. Hayward was taken from the profession in this state.

A very zealous republican paper, in commenting upon the nomination of Melville W. Fuller as chief justice, stated that he was a bitter partisan and that it was for this reason that he was appointed. From the character of President Cleveland's other appointments, we were sure that Mr. Fuller was not appointed because he was a bitter partisan, but we had not the information to correct the misinformation. It is unfortunate to make a nomination for the supreme bench from partisan reasons, and it is equally unfortunate to judge of the nomination from a partisan standpoint unless the character of the nomination compels it. We were very glad to see that eastern republican papers speak well of this nomination. The Globe-Democrat, the most partisan paper in the west, says: "He is a good lawyer, just about the right age, and his character is above reproach." In the biographical sketch, it appears that in 1861 he was elected a member of the state constitutional convention, and in 1862 a member of the legislature. Both times he ran as a democrat in strong republican districts and was elected. At this was during the war, it is pretty good evidence that he was neither unpatriotic nor a bitter partisan. But the best thing in his favor is the fact that he is a law partner of Robert Lincoln. It was to have been expected that a democratic president would appoint a man of democratic proclivities, but from all that is said of Mr. Fuller his appointment cannot be considered a partisan in any way.

Dr. Green's Opinion.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Dr. Norvin Green, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, was before the senate committee on post office and post roads today and made a long argument against the Pacific postal telegraph bill. He said the system of the company was the best in the world, and was growing stronger every year. The government did not need a telegraph, it would not benefit the government. The Western Union did not want to sell but the purchaser was the only basis on which the government could go into the telegraph business. It should take all existing properties and do the business exclusively.

Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The stock market today was weaker than any time since the rise began and after all a reaction was the result of the day's operations. There was free selling on the part of foreigners early in the day, reduction of the dividend of the Pennsylvania and the unfavorable report just passed by the Louisville & Nashville creating a revulsion of feeling at that center on American stocks. There was, however, also great pressure from local bears and traders, with considerable realizations from bulls, some of whom think however that more permanent advances will follow the reaction. In the last hour there was some reaction from the lowest figures, but the market was feverish and unsettled and so closed with a moderately active business.

The Methodist Conference.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The second day's session of the Methodist conference opened at 9 o'clock with Bishop Stephen M. Merrill in the chair. Bishop Merrill read the address of the bishops, extending to the delegates the episcopal greeting and blessing. The address reviewed revival work that had been going on in the church since the last conference four years ago. Since then not less than 450,000 souls had been brought into the church. The membership has increased from 1,750,000 to 2,000,000. After dwelling at length on the growth of skepticism the address advises that only men of scholarly minds who are able to cope with the arguments of skeptics should be placed in the pulpits. Responsible support for missionary bishops was urged. The growth of the number of delegates to the quadrennial conference was looked upon with pride. It was suggested that some change be made that would limit the representation. The increasing arrival on our shores of members of the Roman church makes it imperative that members of the Methodist church should work to convert them. The bishops are of the opinion that the church of Rome is a snare to the people and threatens our institutions. The struggle between capital and labor is referred to in the address, but it was denied that the church has any right to take part in a political struggle or had taken part in them. It was advised that steps should be taken to adopt some regular order of worship so that in all churches the form would be the same. The bishops severely criticized secular Sunday newspapers.

The liquor traffic was deprecated and total prohibition advised. The committee on eligibility of women as delegates reported: That after a serious discussion they have become convinced that when the rule was passed relating to the admission of lay delegates to the general conference, the church contemplated the admission of men only as lay delegates. Under the constitution and laws women are not eligible and the committee agreed that the protest against ladies should be sustained and that the conferences from which they were sent be notified that the seats are vacant. It was resolved that debate on the subject be postponed until to-morrow.

Vigilantes' Mistake.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2. Relatives of John P. Reardon today received news of his death on Sunday in Kansas under peculiar circumstances. Reardon went west some time since and was reported to be prospering. Reardon on Sunday was travelling armed to the teeth and was mistaken for a notorious horse thief named Rodgers, and a sheriff's posse was put on the trail. He was overtaken near Olathe and ordered to surrender. He refused and proposed to fight, when one of the officers fired and Reardon fell, dying almost instantly. The coroner's jury found the killing justifiable. The citizens express much regret since discovering that the dead man was not what they supposed him to be.

The wonderful success of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder has induced unscrupulous parties to imitate our labels, bottles, etc., with a view to deceive the public and induce them to buy a worthless article. The cloak rooms were well filled during these deadlock sessions. There is one of them, you know, at each end of the chamber, and in that of the Republican side there is a corner known as the Salada Rest, where the best story tellers of the house congregate day after day, and where the best of chestnuts are resurrected for modern use.

A typical figure of this Salada Rest at ordinary times is Judge L. B. Taylor, who was so prominent during the two weeks of the deadlock. The management of the Union Pacific—"The Overland Route," made a change in the running time of its local trains Sunday, April 29th, that will be hailed with delight by the residents of "The Omaha and Republican Valley." This change is made in conjunction with the St. Joseph and Grand Island branch, making the leaving time of No. 7 at Council Bluffs 8.40 a. m. and Omaha 9.00 a. m., arriving at Valley at 10.25 a. m. It connects with the train arriving at Valparaiso at 11.25 a. m., and at Stromsburg at 2.30 p. m. Returning it connects with the St. Joseph and Grand Island train via Wood River Junction and Fairfield, arriving at Alma at 4.00 p. m. The train running opposite leaves Alma daily at 5.30 a. m., arriving at Stromsburg at 12.00 p. m., Valparaiso at 2.30 p. m. and Valley 4.15 p. m., connecting with No. 8 arriving in Omaha at 8.00 p. m. and Council Bluffs at 8.40 p. m., connecting with Eastern trains. A change in the running of trains between Lincoln and Valparaiso, enables passengers leaving Alma in the morning to reach Lincoln at 3.40 p. m. Leaving Lincoln at 11.35 a. m. they connect at Valparaiso with the Alma train, arriving at Alma 6.00 p. m.

Good time and through car accommodations make this the most desirable line running into the region of Nebraska. Passengers between Alma and Lincoln will be obliged to make only one change and that at Valparaiso.

REAL ESTATE, LOANS AND INSURANCE!

Special Attention Given to the Collection of Rent, Interest, etc., and the Care of Property of Persons out of Town.

Insurance Carefully Written in First-Class Companies Only.

Losses Promptly and Satisfactorily Adjusted.

STRANGERS, and others not posted in our Real Estate Market, often ask the question, "Where can I best invest my money to be sure of Quick and Profitable returns?"

1st. I would say, select a locality where you have the most SUNSHINE, the finest view of our GRAND MOUNTAIN SCENERY, etc.—

2nd. See that you locate where you can enjoy the best WATER-ADVANTAGES that our City affords. A home without water in this country is a desert, and when I say "BEST WATER-ADVANTAGES" I mean not only for irrigating purposes, which is very important, but also for all DOMESTIC PURPOSES. Our water supply at present is limited, and unless greatly increased the time is not far off when every drop will be needed inside present city limits.

3rd. Do not locate where lots are too low in price—Low priced LOTS long side HIGH PRICED HOUSES, and a PALACE surrounded by shanties will never sell for its full value. Better even, money by other ways and secure a lot that will increase in value.

4th. Don't wait until the "Rock Island" comes in and driven up the price of real estate.

5th. "Lastly," call and see us and we will convince you that "BOULDER HEIGHTS" possesses all the above advantages.

The Granger Land and Town Co.

Now Offers For Sale the Entire

EL PASO COUNTY, COLORADO.

GRANGER is situated on the line of the Denver, Texas & Gulf R. R., about 18 miles northeast of Colorado Springs, in the center of the best Agricultural District in Colorado. The rainfall is sufficient to perfect good crops, and irrigation is entirely unnecessary. All the available Land within a radius of twenty-five miles has been taken up by bona fide settlers, and improvements are rapidly being made on all the occupied land.

Granger has one of the best Town Sites in the State. It commands an extended view in every direction. The site is almost perfectly level, with a slight fall to the southeast. Water is obtainable within 10 feet of the surface on the entire Town Site. The streets are all 80 feet in width, and the lots are all 50x150, excepting the business lots, which are 25x150 feet. The town lies on both sides of the railroad. The Surveyed Line of THE CHICAGO AND ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD Runs Parallel with that of the DENVER, TEXAS & GULF RAILROAD through the Center of the Town, and forms a Junction with the latter at this point, and will be the Construction Headquarters of Rock Island Extension in Colorado. Granger is destined to become an important town in the near future by reason of its location. It is an Objective Point on the lines of all the Railroads now heading for the Rocky Mountains, and also from the fact that it is located in a Rich and Fertile Region, where good water is reached at a shallow depth. It is an important Shipping point on the D., T. & G. R. R. for a large section of country. In the matter of business handled Granger ranks third on the line of the road.

The lots will be sold on the popular Allotment Plan, as follows:

PRICE: $25.00 Each.

The drawing for location, due notice of which will be given, will occur not later than June 1st next, and will be conducted by a competent committee selected by the certificate holders. The company will include in the drawing every alternate lot in the entire town site as platted, beginning with lot 1 in each block, reserving only numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 18 and 19 in block 1; number 13 in block 2; numbers 1, 21 and 22 in block 11; numbers 17, 18 and 33 in block 12; numbers 15 and 16 in block 21; number 18 in block 22; number 17 in block 31; numbers 1, 2 and 3 in block 41, and block 23.

All these lots have been sold and deeded. The object in reserving thus each alternate lot throughout the entire plat, and selling the other at the low price of $25, when there is not a lot in the entire site but what is well worth $100 (some of the reserved lots above mentioned have been sold at this figure), is to enhance the value of property reserved by inducing the purchasers to build and improve over the entire plat. After the drawing prices will be advanced on lots reserved. Lots will be for sale for only a limited time at the following places:

MANITOU -:- IRON -:- WATER

Will now be bottled by me and delivered to parties leaving orders at slate at Robinson's drug store. So do not bring a lot of bottles or jugs, as I shall have a man on watch to stop it. You can take one quart free and drink your fill. Don't ask for more. This rule will apply to all Iron Springs.
